A delegation of key Egyptian figures from diverse political backgrounds will be in Geneva from 21 to 25 October 2013 to meet international organizations and NGOs with the aim of informing them on the political, security and human rights situation in Egypt, and to present their national perspective on bringing the current crisis in Egypt to a peaceful end. The group is composed of parliamentarians, lawyers, journalists, human rights defenders. The delegation, touring key European cities including Paris, Brussels and Berlin, will be hosted in Switzerland by the Cordoba Foundation of Geneva.

The press meeting will be followed by drinks.
I look forward to seeing you on this occasion
